KENNESAW, GEORGIA (November 21, 2005) –On November 9, 2005, the Georgia Recreation and Park Association (GRPA) recognized the City of Kennesaw Parks and Recreation Department with a Visibility Committee Publication Award for its Summer/Fall 2005 Program Guide during GRPA's Annual Conference at the Cobb Galleria Centre.

The Publication Award highlights the printed work of GRPA agencies and is awarded across four classes based on population served.

"We are very excited to be honored," says City of Kennesaw Recreation Programs Coordinator David Pies. "We have been working diligently to improve the readability and content of our Parks and Recreation Program Guide, and we now know that it is paying off."

The Kennesaw Parks and Recreation Program Guide is produced three times a year and contains information about recreation opportunities, special events, parks, facilities and more. To request a free copy, call (770) 422-9714, or stop by one of the following locations in Kennesaw:

- Kennesaw Community Center, 2753 Watts Drive
- Kennesaw City Hall, 2529 J.O. Stephenson Avenue
- Southern Museum of Civil War and Locomotive History, 2829 Cherokee Street

Other GRPA award winners included the Decatur Recreation and Community Services Department, Statesboro-Bulloch County Parks and Recreation Department and Cobb County Parks, Recreation and Cultural Affairs Department.

For more information about the Kennesaw Parks & Recreation Department, visit www.kennesaw-ga.gov/pkrec or call (770) 422-9714.
